Flourishing Missions Assessment for Churches

BCYD MISSIONS

KEY AREA	CLEAR VISION	FUNCTIONAL TEAM	PARTNERSHIPS	DYNAMIC BUDGET	ENGAGEMENT
DESCRIPTION	WHY we need to be involved in global missions and HOW we understand the needs around us.	The critical group of people who will help carry out the vision that emerges.	The missional focus, global worker relationships and missional connections that the church will pursue.	This should reflect the missional vision and should be realistic, generous and stretching in its scope.	Church engagement includes giving, praying and active participation from members.
INDICATORS	Vibrant missional theology Awareness of local and global missional needs Understanding of the church's unique missional DNA Understanding of the PAOC missional actions and priorities.	Passionate and empowered leader Diverse members on the team Established roles and responsibilities for each member Responsibility and accountability	Established criteria for areas of missional focus Missional partnership guidelines and criteria created for PAOC and other global workers and the church Identification of potential PAOC partnerships and review of existing partnerships	Appropriate funding model for the church and its context Missional priorities accurately reflected in budget Annual review mechanisms established Annual or monthly generosity goals developed	Clear communication strategy in place for church and global workers Various missional opportunities made available to church members Culture of missions created within the church
QUESTIONS	What is the missional theology of the church? What is the awareness level of missional needs? How does the church understand its unique missional DNA? How do we understand the PAOC missional actions?	Who is the passionate leader of the missions focus? What diversity is there within the missional team? What are the established roles and functions on the missional team? How will we provide training and development for the missions team?	What are the areas of missional focus that the church would like to be involved in? What is the criteria and what are the expectations for missional partnership? Who have we identified and how do we engage with them?	What is the funding model for the missions budget? What are the clear missional priorities and how are they reflected in the budget? What are the stretching and generous funding goals? How will we review missional funding commitments?	What is the clear communication strategy of the missions team? What are the missional opportunities presented to the church? How are we creating a missional culture within the church?